

Electrical and software coordinator for special machine construction (f/m/div.)

- Gewerbegebiet Fa. Bosch, 87509 Immenstadt im Allgäu, Deutschland
- Full time
- Legal Entity: Robert Bosch GmbH

Company description

Do you want to transform your ideas in beneficial and useful technologies? If in our business unit Mobility Solutions, Consumer Goods, Industrial Technology or Energy and Building Technology – with us you improve the life quality of people all over the world. Welcome to Bosch.

The Robert Bosch GmbH looks forward to your application.

Job description

- You create electrical and software concepts for assembly and test stations
- You calculate the expected costs, create offers for our customers and create schedules and resource plans
- You will also select suitable suppliers and support during the implementation process.
- You are responsible for the electrical installation and system commissioning until the technical acceptance by our customers.
- Finally, you support line relocations and commissioning in our Bosch locations worldwide

Qualification

- Educational background: Completed studies in the field of mechatronics, electrical engineering or a comparable study
- Social skills: Ability to work in a team, strong in communication and assertiveness, structured and cost-conscious
- Experience and know-how: Knowledge of electrical design, preferably with experience in electrical planning and programming
- Languages: Very good knowledge of spoken and written German and English

Additional information

You want to work remote or part time – we offer a variety of possibilities of mobile work part time solutions. Please do not hesitate to contact us.

You have questions regarding the application process?

Martin Sach (HR department)
+49(8323)20-3811

You have questions regarding the job content?

Vanessa Kummert (technical department)
+49(8323)20-2421